Is there any escape from Taxation?

The Bangor Democrat says that taxation is driving people out of the State. The Bangor Democrat says that there is no escape from taxation, this side the grave.

Spain.

Special to N. Y. Herald.—Madrid, Dec. 31. Marshal Prim, although inflammation of his arm was found necessary, retained consciousness to the last, and when made aware of the rapid approach of death, bade adieu to his friends and expressed much anxiety for the safety of the King.

Italy.

Rome, Jan. 1. King Victor Emanuel amid enthusiastic demonstrations for charities for the poor.

A Farmer's Work.

I go by the name of a "ten dollar green-back," and on New Year's morning in town, I was found in the well lined pocket of a business man. Some of the men that I met were in the same line, with a bill of ten dollars for work done in the month.

Contrary to the general impression.

Contrary to the general impression, the most rapid increase of population in the State is in the town of Bangor. The truth is, no doubt, that the growing community are apt to be misled by the fact that the population of each place is increasing.

The Merton Proposition as Adopted by the Senate.

(Despatch to the Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, December 22.—The following is the full text of the joint resolution, authorizing the appointment of commissioners in relation to the republic of Chile, passed by the Senate this morning.

Resolved, by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States in Congress assembled,

That the President of the United States be authorized to appoint three commissioners, one of whom shall be a citizen of the United States, to visit the island of San Domingo, and to ascertain the needs of the island, and to report to the President.
